

MBA

Master of Business Administration

Why take an MBA specializing in Indigenous Management at the University of Saskatchewan?

- Twelve month program
- Explore management of contemporary Aboriginal organizations, business advancement, and economic development issues
- Learn about treaty, self-government and land claim issues and their implications for organizational decision making.
- State of the art facilities and world class researchers
- Competitive tuition and economical cost of living

"At the U of S, the term MBA is something of a misnomer, as we are not being taught to administer, but rather how to lead. We are taught to be strategic thinkers. We are managing people, not resources."

A $10,000 entrance scholarship is available for an exceptional Aboriginal candidate pursuing studies in the MBA program. For information about the scholarship contact the MBA office.
